

I am absolutely opposed to a cable company controlling my programming. This goes against every grain of decency. Please stop this tragedy before it happens. We need more government regulation to stop this. Chris

Indiana