Re: Notification of Ex Parte Presentation of Time Warner Cable, MB Docket No. 10-71

Dear Ms. Dortch:

On May 25, 2010, Cristina Pauzé and Steven Teplitz, both of Time Warner Cable, and the undersigned met with Sherrese Smith, Legal Advisor to Chairman Genachowski, and Rosemary Harold, Legal Advisor to Commissioner McDowell, to discuss the petition for rulemaking pending in the above-captioned docket. During this meeting, we discussed the Commission's authority under Section 325 of the Act to address the mounting consumer harms caused by the problems afflicting the retransmission consent process, including by ordering interim carriage to preserve the status quo during the pendency of dispute resolution procedures. We also reiterated Time Warner Cable's support for promptly initiating a rulemaking proceeding to adopt reforms that would protect consumers from the constant threat of service disruptions and cost increases.

Please contact the undersigned if you have any questions regarding these issues.

Sincerely,

/s/ Matthew A. Brill
