

I am writing to voice my opposition to the proposed Comcast-NBC merger.
If you have any love for the United States as it was meant to be, you will not approve this.
Corporations must be broken apart to save this country, not made larger. I am not an alarmist, but I am alarmed.

Please.