

I work on the Internet everyday and I need the freedom of Net Neutrality. I cannot afford to have high prices that would come from an oligopoly.

The Internet is "public space" and the government must keep it from market competition that ends in monopoly.

Please reclassify broadband as a "telecommunications service" and keep the Internet open and free of corporations that will limit our freedom.