

I rely on the Internet as a public platform for free speech, equal opportunity, economic growth and innovation. Without vital Net Neutrality protections, companies like Verizon and Comcast, which have a commercial incentive to limit the free-flowing Web, can decide whether I will have a voice online. These companies should not have the power to determine my fate on the Internet.

The FCC must have the power to protect consumer access to the most important communications medium of our time. The FCC must stand with me and keep the Internet in the hands of the people who use it every day. Please reclassify broadband as a "telecommunications service" and keep the Internet open and free of corporate gatekeepers.

Control & "free" do not run consecutively, in most cases they mix like oil & water. Is the United States of America "Press core free"?? No they are not or else we would hear of the corruption leading this country down the path to Communism. There are many Mothers..Godly women who "passed on" years ago, who shall never see their wayward siblings again. It is sad when man chooses evil, for then the good is gone forever.
