Re: Ex Parte Presentation, WT Docket No. 08-165

Dear Ms. Dortch:

On July 23, 2010, Brian Josef, Director, Regulatory Affairs, CTIA-The Wireless Association® (“CTIA”), met with Louis Peraertz, Acting Legal Advisor for Commissioner Mignon Clyburn, to discuss the pending Petition for Reconsideration¹ of the FCC’s Declaratory Ruling to Ensure Timely Siting Review.²

During the meeting, CTIA explained that the FCC should deny NATOA’s Petition to overturn the 30-day review period during which a zoning authority can automatically toll the applicable 90- or 150-day timeframe if it deems an application to be incomplete. CTIA highlighted that the review period for automatic tolling is inextricably intertwined with the Commission’s interpretation of Section 332(c)(7) and informs the “reasonable period of time” for a zoning authority to act on a wireless siting application.

Pursuant to Section 1.1206 of the Commission’s rules, a copy of this letter is being filed via ECFS with your office. Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact the undersigned.

Sincerely,

/s/ Brian M. Josef

Brian M. Josef
