Dear Ms. Dortch:

In the August 2, 2010, letter filed on behalf of ICO Global Communications (Holdings) Limited (“ICO Global”) in the above-captioned proceedings, the last two sentences in the first paragraph on page 5 should be replaced with the following:

The current deadline is August 2010, but at no time has the 36-month limit on Sprint’s ability to collect reimbursement been extended.^{13/}

Respectfully submitted,

Howard J. Symons

^{13/} Sprint argues that the Commission has already decided that the true-up deadline will be extended, see Sprint July 27 Ex Parte at 4-5, but that is plainly wrong. In fact, contrary to Sprint’s assertion, the June 12 Order and FNPRM specifically includes a request for comment on whether the true-up deadline should be extended among a list of “issues that are ambiguous or not specifically addressed by the current requirements.” See June 12 Order and FNPRM ¶ 82.
