

Chair Julius Genachowski, you need to immediately enact strong net neutrality regulations. It's not Google's or Verizon's job to write regulations ? it's the job of the FCC, which has so far failed to act to protect American consumers.

You must not let Google or Verizon decide how we can use the Internet.