

I urge the Chairman to draft a strong set of rules that will keep the Net neutral- both wired and wireless. The FCC needs to protect consumers and their freedom, not big business and their profits.