

Small Business like my own depend on free access to the internet and do not need to be upstaged by band width purchased by big money corporations.

I fully support and wish to preserve the open internet Broadband practices.

Corporate enclosure of the internet will not support the free speech our country is founded on and I am against it!