Thank you for your inquiry. At this point since you are well past the 60 days from the date of your FCDL deadline to appeal, you would have to file a waiver request with the FCC to see if you would be allowed to file an appeal.

The following is in the Reference Area under Appeals and here is a direct link:

<http://www.usac.org/sl/about/appeals/default.aspx>

Waiver Requests. A waiver is a request to waive an FCC policy, rule, or deadline such as the Form 471 application filing window deadline. For example, if you missed the filing deadline for Form 471 because of extenuating circumstances, USAC cannot waive the deadline but you can ask the FCC to waive the rules in your case by filing a waiver request with the FCC. To file a waiver request, follow the instructions for Option B below. Please note that waivers are not granted often: only in special circumstances and when a deviation from the rules would serve the public interest. The waiver standard generally requires a showing of circumstances that could not be avoided even with careful planning.

[FRN]=1894844

[Question2]=As I was getting ready to file a Form 472 for this FRN, I realized that I had made an error on the original Form 471. I inadvertently entered the INeligible amount in the Eligible amount field. The Item 21 Attachment that was filed was correct. Neither PIA nor myself caught the discrepancy until now. I will be sending a copy of the Form 471 as it was filed online and a copy of the Item 21 Attachment as it was filed online. I will also send a copy of the first page of the October 2008 invoice that was used to determine the estimate.

Correct monthly amount is: 2,387.07

Correct INeligible monthly amount is: 543.42

Correct Eligible monthly amount needs to be corrected to:
1,843.65

How do I get this corrected before I file the Form 472?
