Re: Notice of Ex Parte Presentation - CC Docket No. 01-92 and WC
Docket No. 07-135

Dear Ms. Dortch:

On September 10, 2010, CTIA–The Wireless Association® (“CTIA”) met with Zac Katz of the Office of Chairman Julius Genachowski and Don Stockdale, Nick Alexander, and Rebekah Goodheart of the Wireline Competition Bureau to discuss traffic pumping issues in the above-referenced dockets. CTIA was represented by Christopher Guttman-McCabe, Vice President, Regulatory Affairs; Scott Bergmann, Assistant Vice President, Regulatory Affairs; Jacqueline McCarthy, Director, State Regulatory and External Affairs; David Redl, Director, Regulatory Affairs, as well as the following member company representatives: Brian Benison, AT&T; Russell Merbeth, Cricket; Charles McKee and Norina Moy, Sprint Nextel; Garnet Hanly, T-Mobile USA, Inc.; Tamara Preiss, Verizon; and, Elaine Critides, Verizon Wireless.

In the meeting, CTIA urged the Commission to take action now to address traffic pumping. Traffic pumping schemes are proliferating across the country; thus, Commission action in this area cannot wait for comprehensive intercarrier compensation reform. Consistent with the National Broadband Plan’s recommendations, the Commission should take “interim steps to address ... access stimulation.”¹ The Commission’s action in this area should address all types of traffic (including intra-MTA traffic) and all types of providers (including CLECs).

The discussion in the meeting was consistent with the attached presentation, which was distributed to meeting attendees. Pursuant to Section 1.1206 of the Commission’s rules, a copy of this letter, along with the attachment, is being filed via ECFS with your office. Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact the undersigned.

Sincerely,

/s/ Scott K. Bergmann
