

Can you please consider making the Cell phone accessible for the deaf/blind. Since I am totally deaf/blind, I would need tactile buttons and Braille read-out. Many people are not using their home phones any longer so the need of cell phone is important to me.

I am head of my house and need to keep in touch with home and other important people.