

I am legally blind. My usage of cell phones is daily. When buying a cell phone, I could find one that had digital audio but not large enough print display or an older phone with large enough print and no digital audio. Thus no cell phone that could serve all of my needs.

Being legally blind, some items like seeing what I dialed is very useful. It is quite useful also to know who is calling via digital audio.