

Cell phone companys SHOULD be required to notify you if you are about to go over your limit, incur out-of-the-country charges, and give you tools to control your bill.