Re: MB Docket No. 10-91; CS Docket No. 97-80; PP Docket No. 00-67

Dear Ms. Dortch:

On Monday, November 8, 2010, Rick Chessen, Senior Vice President, Law & Regulatory Policy of the National Cable & Telecommunications Association (“NCTA”), Paul Glist from the law firm Davis Wright Tremaine, Jonathan Friedman from the law firm of Willkie, Farr and Gallagher, and I met with Julie Veach, Deputy General Counsel, Office of the General Counsel (“OGC”), James Carr and Susan Aaron from OGC, Marilyn Sonn, Acting Legal Advisor in the Office of Chairman Genachowski, and Nancy Murphy, Steven Broeckaert, Lyle Elder and Brendan Murray from the Media Bureau.

We discussed the significant legal and Constitutional issues raised by some commenters’ proposals in the Commission’s AllVid Notice of Inquiry (“NOI”), particularly with respect to the forced unbundling (“disaggregation”) of MVPD video offerings. Our discussion reflected the concerns and positions expressed in the Comments and Reply Comments and ex parte filings of NCTA and others in the above-referenced AllVid NOI proceeding. See e.g., NCTA Comments at 47-52 and Reply Comments at 30-36; AT&T Comments at 43-66 and Reply Comments at 14-21, 37-43; Verizon Comments at 21-24 and Reply Comments at 14-17; Cablevision Comments at 25-29; Time Warner Cable Comments at 9-12; and DirecTV Reply Comments at 15- 27.

Ms. Marlene H. Dortch
