

I believe the implementation of IP (Internet Protocol) version 6 over the current version 4 will provide much better security and control of content. The advantages of IPv6 over IPv4 should be made known to all people concerned about content & security measures.