

Most of my dealings with three area cable companies tells me that cable companies flat out lie to consumers. I've been told within the past three months that cable cards are not supported on systems, we do not allow self installs, it will not work with a tivo or pc only TVs, and cable cards are not eligible for bundled prices.