

As an ardent birdwatcher I am concerned about the serious and significant impact that radio and other towers have upon migratory and flight patterns. Please consider an EIS to help guide the Antennae Structure Registration program minimize negative environmental impacts, including on songbirds.

Thank you.