Re: In the Matter of Special Access for Price Cap Local Exchange Carriers, WC Dkt. No. 05-25, RM-10593

Dear Ms. Dortch:

Pursuant to the Second Protective Order in the above-referenced proceeding,¹ please find enclosed for filing two copies of the redacted version of a response from Integra Telecom, Inc. (“Integra”) to the Commission’s Special Access Data Request Public Notice (“Public Notice”).² The redacted version of the filing is also being emailed to Marvin Sacks of the Pricing Policy Division of the Wireline Competition Bureau.

Also pursuant to the Protective Order, one original of the confidential version of this filing is being filed with the Secretary’s Office under separate cover today. Two copies of the confidential version will also be provided to Marvin Sacks of the Pricing Policy Division of the Wireline Competition Bureau under separate cover.

¹ See In the Matter of Special Access for Price Cap Local Exchange Carriers, Second Protective Order, WC Dkt. No. 05-25, RM-10593, DA 10-2419 (rel. Dec. 27, 2010) (“Second Protective Order”).

² See Data Requested in Special Access NPRM, Public Notice, WC Docket 05-25, RM-10593, DA 10-2073 (rel. Oct. 28, 2010) (“Public Notice”).

REDACTED - FOR PUBLIC INSPECTION

Integra is filing both narrative and data specification responses in response to the Public Notice. Its narrative responses are included as Attachment A to the letter; its data specification responses are contained on the highly confidential CD enclosed with this submission, per the instructions in the Public Notice. Integra has provided responses to narrative Questions III.A, III.D, and III.F, and to data specifications III.B.1, III.B.2, and III.B.3. This submission is a full response to the Commission's voluntary data request.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions or concerns about this submission.

Respectfully submitted,

Integra's Narrative Responses to Voluntary Information Requests III.A, III.D, and III.F

Voluntary Information Request Question III.A.

For each Listed Statistical Area, we request that all providers other than incumbent LECs (e.g., competitive LECs, out-of-region incumbent LECs, cable companies, fixed wireless, etc.) state whether their company has any connections that it owns or that it leases from another entity under an indefeasible right of use (IRU) agreement.

Integra's Response:

Voluntary Information Request Question III.D.

We request that all providers other than incumbent LECs (e.g., competitive LECs, out-of-region incumbent LECs, cable companies, fixed wireless, etc.) answer the following questions pursuant to the Instructions in Section II of this Public Notice:

1. Explain the business rule that you use to determine whether to build a channel termination to a particular location. Please enumerate all underlying assumptions.

Integra's Response:

2. Please describe reasons why even if your business rule suggests that it would make sense to build, you would not, e.g., inability to access building, issues with rights of way, inability to obtain capital, issues of timing.

Integra's Response:

All of the above reasons described in the question above can limit Integra's opportunity to build facilities to a location. [BEGIN HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL]

[END HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL]

Voluntary Information Request Question III.F

We seek comment from the public on the quality, utility and clarity of this data request.

Integra's Response:

Integra does not have any comment from the public on the quality, utility, and clarity of this data request. Integra notes that the data that it has provided in response to the Public Notice is current vintage data that was collected from its systems since the release of the Public Notice. Integra's systems are generally unable to pull data as of a past date (e.g., December 31, 2009).
