Re: Reexamination of Roaming Obligations of Commercial Mobile Radio Service Providers and Other Providers of Mobile Data Services, WT Docket No. 05-265; Notice of Ex Parte Presentation

Dear Ms. Dortch:

On January 26, 2011, Michael D. Rosenthal and Holly Henderson of Southern Communications Services, Inc. d/b/a SouthernLINC Wireless (“SouthernLINC Wireless”) and David Rines of Fish & Richardson P.C. met with Charles Mathias, Legal Advisor to Commissioner Baker, to discuss the extension of the Commission’s automatic roaming requirements to mobile data services.

In this meeting, SouthernLINC Wireless reiterated its support for the adoption of automatic data roaming obligations and emphasized the need for Commission action to make access to mobile data services available to all consumers throughout the country. SouthernLINC Wireless described its own efforts to obtain data roaming services, as reflected in the record of this proceeding. Consistent with its filings in this proceeding, SouthernLINC Wireless stated that data roaming is the functional equivalent of “commercial mobile service” and thus the Commission has ample legal authority to adopt a data roaming obligation under Section 332 of the Communications Act.<sup>1</sup>
