

Dear Chairman Genachowski,

Cell phone companies should not be allowed to control text message content or the transmission of information in any way. I urge the FCC to prevent such practices and subject abuses to civil penalties. Text messaging is a vital form of communication, and should be protected from interference just like voice calls. The FCC must grant Public Knowledge's petition now, before wireless carriers block anything else.

Sincerely,

Richard Best