Carol - Here are three background documents your staff can review in preparation for next week's meeting. The first is an overview of issues relating to WWOR's license renewal proceeding; the second is a copy of the opposition to the petition to deny that News Corp filed in connection with WWOR's license renewal application; and the third is the newspaper/broadcast cross-ownership rule waiver petition that News Corp filed last summer.

WWOR-TV: A STRONG COMMITMENT AND RECORD OF SERVICE TO THE VIEWERS OF NORTHERN NEW JERSEY

The following outline sets forth the legal standard applicable to the renewal application filed for WWOR-TV, Secaucus, New Jersey ("WWOR-TV"), and clarifies that no special obligations have ever been imposed by the FCC outside of the requirement, adopted in 1983 as to the then licensee, that WWOR-TV's primary service area extended beyond its city of license (the primary service area for all other stations) and encompassed northern New Jersey. The outline then highlights WWOR-TV's impressive record of service to the viewers of northern New Jersey – a service which the station is committed to continuing for the indefinite future. Finally, it demonstrates that Section 309(k) of the Communications Act requires renewal of WWOR-TV's license without special programming conditions.

- 1) No Special Programming Obligation. WWOR-TV's obligation to serve the issues and interests of its community of license, Secaucus, is no different in kind or degree from any broadcaster's obligation to serve its community of license.
  - a) Opposition to WWOR-TV's pending renewal application is premised on a misapprehension of the station's programming obligations. Opponents have attempted to manufacture special programming obligations for WWOR-TV, when in fact the station, at most, has a larger primary service area (northern New Jersey) than other licensees (their community of license).
  - b) WWOR-TV became licensed to Secaucus under unique circumstances. Pursuant to Section 331 of the Communications Act, the Commission in 1983 reallocated WWOR-TV from New York to Secaucus. The enactment of Section 331 enabled the station's then licensee, RKO General, to terminate a pending renewal of license proceeding, avoiding possible loss of license, by agreeing to move the station from New York City to the state of New Jersey. In connection with the reallocation, the Commission observed that RKO General had a primary obligation to serve not only its city of license, but all of northern New Jersey lying within its Grade B contour.<sup>1</sup>
  - c) In 1986, the Commission, acting upon an application for consent to assign the station's license to a subsidiary of MCA, considered and rejected arguments that RKO General had assumed a "higher obligation" to be responsive to the issues and concerns of its service area.<sup>2</sup> The Commission stated that RKO General's higher obligation was one only of the geographic coverage area to which the station was required to be responsive. Unlike other stations, which are required primarily to serve the needs of their “city of license,” RKO General’s primary obligation extended not only to Secaucus, but to all of its Grade B service area encompassing most of northern New Jersey.<sup>3</sup>

- d) The Commission made clear that RKO General’s “obligation to serve the issues and interests of northern New Jersey is no different in kind or degree from any licensee’s obligation to serve its community of license.”<sup>4</sup>
- e) Most importantly, the Commission’s decision related only to the question of whether RKO General, as seller of the station, had met its obligations as delineated in the decision allocating WWOR-TV to Secaucus and should be permitted to assign the license. As to the programming obligations of the buyer, MCA, the FCC refused a request by the State of New Jersey that it condition approval of the assignment on MCA’s compliance with representations that it had made in the assignment application with respect to service to New Jersey. The FCC indicated that “it is apparent that [MCA] understands its service obligations,” mooted any need for the imposition of a condition.<sup>5</sup>
- f) The FCC again rejected complaints that WWOR-TV had failed to provide sufficient New Jersey programming in its review of a petition to deny WWOR-TV’s spin-off to MCA shareholders in 1990.<sup>6</sup> In its decision, the Commission determined that the petitioner had failed to demonstrate, based on WWOR-TV’s publicly-available issues/programs list, that the station had ignored New Jersey issues. In granting the consent to the transfer of control, the Commission imposed no conditions with respect to either a New Jersey physical presence requirement or special programming obligation.
- g) In fact, since RKO General’s acceptance of the reallocation of the station’s license to New Jersey in 1983, the Commission has not once imposed any programming condition on the grant of an assignment of license for WWOR-TV or on the grant of its renewal applications. The Commission granted the station’s 1987, 1994 and 1999 renewal applications without imposing any programming conditions. Nor did the Commission impose any special conditions with respect to New Jersey programming in connection with its grant of consent to the transfer of control of the station in 2001 to Fox Television Stations, Inc. (“FTS”) or in the grant of consent in 2006 to the transfer of control of FTS from K. Rupert Murdoch to Fox Entertainment Group. While FTS intends to continue its exemplary service to all of New Jersey within the Grade B contour of WWOR-TV and maintain its presence in the state, it is subject to no unique requirements with respect to service to New Jersey.

2) WWOR-TV Has Provided Exemplary Service to the Residents of Northern New Jersey.

- a) Daily News. Since FTS acquired WWOR-TV in 2001, the station has broadcast more than 2000 hours of regularly scheduled newscasts; more than 200 hours of public affairs programming and in the last two years alone, more than 20,000 public service announcements benefiting local charities and residents.
  - i) Nightly News, Seven Days a Week. WWOR-TV's one hour nightly newscasts spend a substantial amount of time covering issues of importance to northern New Jersey viewers, including extensive coverage of elections and local events.
  - ii) News Updates. During the last two years WWOR-TV has increased its news gathering capabilities, adding new staff and enhancing its mobile satellite coverage. As a result, the station had added regularly scheduled local news updates running between 4:00 and 7:00 p.m. weeknights. WWOR-TV also interrupts regularly scheduled programming for breaking news reports of importance to northern New Jersey viewers. Examples of breaking news segments include severe weather warnings, Amber Alerts, and live addresses by the Governor of New Jersey. The station also carries live coverage of the Governor's annual State of the State address.
  - iii) Partnership with the Record. In 2007, the station has also partnered with a local newspaper, The Record and Rasmussen, a provider of political data, to enhance its local coverage.
  - iv) News Crawls. WWOR-TV regularly runs news crawls to provide viewers with up-to-date coverage of news developments such as, school closings, major traffic and New Jersey election results.
- b) Weekly Public Affairs Programming. WWOR-TV broadcasts weekly half-hour public affairs programs New Jersey Now (formerly Ask Congress) and Real Talk. Each airs for one-half hour on Sundays at noon and 12:30 p.m., respectively. NJ Now provides a forum for New Jersey politicians to address issues of importance to New Jersey residents. Real Talk presents local social, economic and cultural issues, as well as local personalities, providing viewers access to civic and community leaders. Recently, the station moved the air time for each of these programs from early Sunday morning to Sunday mid-day.

- c) Local Sports and Entertainment. WWOR-TV provides a wide variety of entertainment and sports programming, including regular coverage of the New Jersey Nets, New York Giants and New York Yankees sporting events. The station also covers entertainment programs responsive to our diverse audience – for example, each year WWOR-TV brings the community coverage of the National Puerto Rican Day Parade and the MDA Telethon; in 2007 the station began carrying the McDonald’s Gospelfest which it also plans to broadcast on a yearly basis. The station also recently broadcast the United Negro College Funds’ Tribute to Smokey Robinson.
- d) WWOR-TV Is Committed to New Jersey. The following examples, while not exhaustive, are representative of WWOR-TV’s commitment to New Jersey.
  - i) WWOR-TV’s Presence in New Jersey. WWOR-TV’s main studio is located in a 110,000 square foot office complex in Secaucus, New Jersey. The station has invested nearly $12 million dollars toward the capital improvement of the facility since 2001.
  - ii) WWOR-TV currently employs over 250 individuals at the Secaucus facility and employees often take part in a variety of events in and around northern New Jersey. For example, several employees work with the New Jersey Task Force on Fire Prevention, Leadership New Jersey and the NJ Mental Health Institute. The station also has partnered with the Community Food Bank of NJ, The New Jersey Center for Performing Arts and the Three Doctors Organization, among others, to help serve the community.
  - iii) Training and Internships. WWOR-TV operates a paid apprentice program to identify qualified individuals for work in the broadcasting field. The program has successfully increased opportunities for minorities and women, which have been underrepresented in the field. The station also provides internship opportunities for college students and supports the Emma Bowen Foundation for Minority Interest in Media, which helps fund a job and career development program, and partners with One Hundred Black Men on a mentoring program.

3) The FCC Should Renew WWOR-TV’s License Without Conditions.

- a) Standard for Renewal. Section 309(k) of the Communications Act, which governs television broadcast license renewals, was adopted as part of the Telecommunications Act of 1996. Section 309(k)(1) requires the Commission to grant a renewal application if specified requirements are satisfied: “If the licensee of a broadcast station submits an application to the Commission for renewal of such license, the Commission shall grant the application if it finds, with respect to that station, during the preceding term of its license –
  - (A) the station has served the public interest, convenience, and necessity;

(B) there have been no serious violations by the licensee of this Act or the rules and regulations of the Commission; and
(C) there have been no other violations by the licensee of this Act or the rules and regulations of the Commission which, taken together, would constitute a pattern of abuse.”<sup>7</sup>

- b) Limited Authority to Deny or Condition a Renewal. Only if the licensee fails to meet the standard of Section 309(k)(1), may the Commission deny the application – after notice and opportunity for a hearing under Section 309(e) of the Act – or grant the application “on terms and conditions that are appropriate, including a renewal for a term less than the maximum otherwise permitted.”<sup>8</sup>
- c) WWOR-TV Has Satisfied the Requirements Section 309(k)(1) for Renewal. Since there can be no finding of a serious rule violation or rule violations amounting to a pattern of abuse, the FCC must find that WWOR-TV did not serve the public interest in order to impose conditions pursuant to Section 309(k)(2) – a standard that it simply cannot meet. As demonstrated above, WWOR-TV’s license is subject to no express conditions as to its programming to New Jersey. And quite apart from the question of whether it is subject to requirements applicable to no other television station, it is indisputable that WWOR-TV has provided exceptional service to northern New Jersey. Accordingly, imposition of special programming conditions on the grant of WWOR-TV’s pending renewal application would violate Section 309(k)(2) of the Communications Act.
- 4) Even if the Commission Had the Authority—Which It Does Not—to Impose Conditions on the Grant of WWOR-TV’s License Renewal, the FCC Must, if WWOR-TV Requests, Vacate Any Conditional Grant and Afford WWOR-TV a Full Evidentiary Hearing.
- a) Under Section 1.110 of the Commission’s rules, if the FCC grants any application subject to terms or conditions other than those requested by the applicant, the applicant may reject the grant and request an evidentiary hearing before an administrative law judge.<sup>9</sup> “Upon receipt of such request, the Commission will vacate its original action upon the application and set the application for hearing....”<sup>10</sup> The hearing would be a trial-type and include introduction of oral and written testimony with full right of cross-examination.
- b) An applicant may then request Commission review of the outcome of the hearing process<sup>11</sup> and appeal a final Commission decision imposing conditions to the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit.<sup>12</sup> An applicant may also seek review of any court of appeals decision by filing a petition for writ of certiorari with the Supreme Court.

5) Subjective Review of a Broadcaster's Editorial Choices Is Not within the Purview of the Commission.

- a) The First Amendment and Section 326 of the Communications Act prohibit the Commission from interfering with broadcasters' free speech rights or improperly interfering with the programming decisions of licensees.<sup>13</sup>
- b) The Supreme Court has recognized the degree to which Congress has directed the Commission to steer clear of oversight of broadcast news— "Congress intended to permit private broadcasting to develop with the widest journalistic freedom," and – since it is not physically possible to provide time for all viewpoints – "the right to exercise editorial judgment was granted to the broadcaster."<sup>14</sup>
- c) The Commission itself has stated that, "the general rule is that the Commission [will] not sit to review the broadcaster's news judgment, the quality of his news and public affairs reporting, or his taste."<sup>15</sup>

6) The Commission Has No Basis to Make Quantitative Judgments About WWOR-TV's Programming

- a) The Commission long-ago eliminated its quantitative guidelines for non-entertainment, local and informational programming. Prior to its 1984 deregulation order, the Commission maintained renewal application processing guidelines specifying the amount of non-entertainment programming that television stations were required to broadcast to ensure routine processing of their renewal application and avoid additional review.<sup>16</sup>

The Commission ultimately concluded that the processing guidelines imposed burdensome compliance costs and raised potential First Amendment concerns by unnecessarily infringing on the editorial discretion of broadcasters.<sup>17</sup>

- b) FTS has clearly demonstrated that it has provided programming responsive to issues of concern to viewers in northern New Jersey. Moreover, WWOR-TV provides more local news on average than other similarly ranked commercial television stations in the United States and carries more local news and public affairs programming than other full power stations licensed in New Jersey.
  - i) A brief review of the programming of local New Jersey stations' reveals that, on average, WWOR-TV currently broadcasts over 8.0 hours of local news and public affairs programming per week. Other full-power commercial stations licensed in New Jersey broadcast less than 3.0 hours of local news and public affairs programming per week.
  - ii) WWOR-TV carries significantly more news than other similarly situated stations. Nationally, over 60 percent of stations ranked fifth or below in a market provide no local news at all.<sup>18</sup> The FCC's own 2005 study reveals that the remaining 40 percent of stations ranked fifth and below average 458 minutes over a two week period.<sup>19</sup> In contrast, WWOR-TV, which is ranked sixth in the DMA, currently provides over 850 minutes of local news over any given two week period.

SUMMARY

Fox has paid close attention to community needs and provided exemplary service to the residents of northern New Jersey since it acquired WWOR-TV six and one-half years ago. In particular, the station airs a one-hour nightly newscast each day, and broadcasts one hour of public affairs programming each week. Collectively, these programs spend a substantial amount of time covering issues of importance to WWOR-TV's New Jersey viewers. As but one example, the station airs New Jersey Now, a weekly one-half hour program providing interviews with state and local elected leaders and political candidates. WWOR-TV also offers viewers a wide variety of entertainment programming and serves as the free, over-the-air home for the New Jersey Nets basketball team. In addition, in recent years the station has provided game coverage for sports teams from local universities Rutgers and Seton Hall.

Notwithstanding the station's record of service to New Jersey, Voice for New Jersey (the "Petitioners") filed a petition to deny the station's license renewal application, alleging that WWOR-TV has failed to serve the needs of its community. The Petition, however, relies on subjective assessments of the station's news coverage and is based on only a selective – and faulty – review of the station's record. Accordingly, the Petition cannot possibly meet the high burden imposed by the Commission on those seeking to challenge renewal applications on the basis of a licensee's content selection.

First, the Petition intrudes on vital constitutional principles that protect a free press from governmental interference. Indeed, the Commission has long made clear that it will not sit in judgment of a licensee's editorial choices, and that the First Amendment provides licensees with broad discretion to select what programs and issues to cover on their stations.

Equally important, the Petitioners appear fundamentally to misapprehend the legal standard applicable to review of WWOR-TV's renewal application. The Petition argues that the station should be subject to heightened scrutiny to determine whether it has adequately served New Jersey viewers. The Commission, however, already has had opportunity to consider and reject this very argument, making clear that WWOR-TV's "obligation to serve the issues and concerns of northern New Jersey is not different in kind or degree from any licensee's obligation to service its community of license." In any case, WWOR-TV's record of service to New Jersey leaves no doubt that it has provided a substantial amount of issue-responsive programming specifically targeted toward viewers in the state.

Finally, the Petitioners' specific criticisms of WWOR-TV's coverage over the past six and one-half years can easily be dismissed. To the degree that the Petition finds fault in the station's election coverage, its analysis is based on patently inadequate monitoring of WWOR-TV's programming – the Petitioners rely on a study that evaluated just 30 days of regularly-scheduled newscasts (out of thousands of hours news programming) and that excluded entirely every other type of election coverage, including WWOR-TV's public affairs programs. Likewise, the news programming analyzed by Petitioners during a 12-day window in April 2007 constitutes far too limited an amount of time to serve as the basis for conclusions about WWOR-TV's overall record. In any event, despite the flaws inherent in the Petition's analysis, even the Petitioners' own data confirms that the station provided ample coverage of New Jersey elections and other local issues during the limited periods of review.

The Petitioners fare no better in their attempt to calculate the precise number of the station's news stories related to New Jersey based solely on an examination of issues/programs lists and local service reports. Most critically, the Petitioners incorrectly assume that the issues/programs lists constituted an exhaustive recount of every single story aired by WWOR-TV, when in fact the lists were only meant to be exemplary of the station's efforts. The Petitioners' flawed analysis also defies logic, for it classifies any story that did not take place within the geographic boundaries of New Jersey as irrelevant to the station's effort to serve viewers in the state. Quite clearly, though, coverage of important regional, national and international issues is responsive to the needs and interests of New Jersey residents. Regardless, even the unduly narrow analysis conducted by the Petitioners reveals that WWOR-TV broadcast more than 1,000 New Jersey-focused news stories over its most recent license term – clearly more than a “nominal” amount that would call into question whether the station defaulted on its obligation to serve its community.

In sum, the Petition fails to allege a prima facie case that WWOR-TV's overall programming effort falls short of its public interest obligation. Not only does the Petition conflict with critical First Amendment principles, it also attempts to evaluate WWOR-TV based on erroneous assumptions and an entirely too limited review of the station's record. When all of Fox's efforts to serve New Jersey viewers are taken into account, there can be no question that WWOR-TV is deserving of renewal, and the Petition should be dismissed.

OPPOSITION TO PETITION TO DENY

Fox Television Stations, Inc. ("Fox"), licensee of television station WWOR-TV, Secaucus, NJ, hereby submits its Opposition to the Petition to Deny the above-captioned renewal application, filed April 30, 2007 by Voice for New Jersey (the "Petitioners"), which raises questions concerning Fox's service to its New Jersey viewers.<sup>1</sup>

I. WWOR-TV HAS PROVIDED EXEMPLARY SERVICE TO NEW JERSEY, BROADCASTING A SUBSTANTIAL AMOUNT OF PROGRAMMING SPECIFICALLY TARGETING VIEWERS IN THE STATE

Fox takes seriously its obligation to provide programming that meets the tastes, needs and interests of viewers in northern New Jersey, and in particular, to keep New Jersey citizens informed by broadcasting important local news and informational programming. Since Fox acquired WWOR-TV in July 2001, the station has dedicated substantial resources to producing programming specifically targeting the various New
