

Please preserve over-the-air HDTV. Do not let the cell phone industry pressure you to give up bandwidth. The poor can not afford the monthly cable or satellite TV cost and if they do get minimum cost, they do not get HDTV. Many of us older Americans do not need 300 channels. The basic networks are enough to keep up on the news.