Re: Pending WMFE-TV Sale

Dear Ms. Dortch:

I object to the proposed sale of WMFE-TV in Orlando, Florida to the Daystar Television Network. This sale does not serve the public interest, convenience, and necessity. Would the FCC truly allow a television market the size of Orlando to be deprived of its sole educational television outlet?

The contemplation of this sale was never pre-announced to the general public by the current governing organization. Had the public known, I'm sure a number of extraordinary fund raising campaigns would have been launched to preserve the frequency for educational use.

There is already a number of religion based programming television channels serving the Orlando market. Adding another at the expense of our sole educational channel could not possibly be justified by the Communications Act of 1934.

Sincerely,

Lawrence D. Stephey, KJ4DG
