

I signed contract with DirecTV one year ago and have not seen the price ($29.95 mo) quoted on any bill since. Usually I paid $70.88 per month, and I paid it because as bad as being lied to is, it could be worse. This months bill is $101.89. My service has not been changed, and this is the first time I've complained. Bullying seems to be the type of service I'm getting. Thank you for your attention.
