

I oppose the merger of AT&T and T-Mobile on the grounds that the merger will encourage a lack of competition in the market due to fewer major players. Also, this merger would stifle customer choice, and raise the overall price of a user's phone bill. Not only does AT&T charge higher rates than T-Mobile for similar services, but AT&T mislabels their capped data plans as "Unlimited" data plans.