

As a long time supporter of duq, I endorse the current format of the station programing I oppose the sale of the station to Essential Public Media in that the proposed buyer has not committed to continuing the long standing Pgh tradition of jazz porgraming. I believe the Pgh Public Media group should have been the sucessful bidder. I believe this group submitted a higher bid than Essential and was committed to maintaining the excellent staff and jazz programing.