

Please make local, community-based networks eligible for Connect America Fund support! Smaller, local organizations are better at doing more with less. They are also more dependent on customer satisfaction for their continued survival. Local companies keep a larger portion of their profits in the local area. Higher paying jobs remain in the area with ensuing benefits to local housing and services. Smaller firms are also more easily accounted for by local customers.