

In an effort to keep the big players responsible and honest, I strongly feel that the USF money needs to be equally available to locally-based and controlled networks. They provide a real and useful service alternative in their markets, and deserve equal, not discriminatory, treatment.