

Along with the statement I agree with before, I have dealt with an AT&T merger before when they took over Cingular and have tried to stay away from them since. From the people I know who have them as a provider it sounds like they haven't really changed, while T-Mobile has constantly been improving their service while maintaining great customer service.

AT&T's takeover of T-Mobile would stifle choice and innovation in the market, harm consumers, and lead to higher prices and fewer jobs nationwide. Don't let AT&T put our mobile future at risk. Please stand with me and reject such reckless consolidation of the mobile industry.
