Dear Ms. Dortch:

On June 27, 2011, John Staurulakis, Inc. ("JSI") filed an Objection to the Request of the Ad Hoc Telecommunications Users Committee for access to the Data Request Responses containing confidential data filed by JSI on behalf of sixty-three companies in the above-referenced dockets<sup>1</sup>. JSI is the cost consultant for the sixty-three companies, and consequently acted as the Submitting Party of all information filed with the FCC in conjunction with this matter.

On July 1, 2011, the Ad Hoc Telecommunications Users Committee filed a Response to JSI's Objection Letter<sup>2</sup>. Attached herewith is the JSI response to address the erroneous statement contained in the Ad Hoc Telecommunications Users Committee's Response that the JSI Objection Letter was filed out of time. This response is also being sent today via E-mail to Ms. Sharon E. Gillett, Chief, Wireline Competition Bureau, as well as to the other copied parties noted below.
