

I am a land surveyor in Tucson, Arizona. We have two crews that use GPS on a daily basis. ANY interference with the signal or the capacity to use this tool will have an extremely negative impact on our business. How is it possible that you are even considering any signals that interfere with such a universal tool?