

I use GPS for flying and driving. I'm very concerned about LightSquared being licensed to operate near the GPS bands. Testing has conclusively shown that interference would occur with LightSquared's current plan. The FCC should not allow LightSquared to have spectrum near the GPS bands.