

I rely on the GPS system regularly for a high tech scavenger hunt called Geocaching. I am deeply concerned about LightSquared plans because I believe that they may interfere with the GPS system. If these proposed plans were to continue then millions of Geocachers would be unable to participate in our favorite hobby. Please do everything you can to defend and improve the GPS system because it has impacted society and is essential to the economy.