

This has been such an outrageous problem for many years...and it should not be tolerated anymore..
The phone company should not automatically billing us for fraudulent 3rd party charges....and our phone bills are complicated enough as it is....to even be lucky enough to discover it...!