

Dear Sirs,

Please do not allow lightsquare to share the bandwidth of the GPS systems. The end result will be devastating. Not only to pilots and aviation, but the entire nations security and transportation system. Allowing this would show the country that with enough money, anything is possible, regardless of the consequences and general good of the communities and country.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Steve Bortle