

Thanks for the form letter. The bottom line is that this is a regulated industry, and you have the right to enforce "a la carte" programming. Get a backbone and do so for the benefit of the consumer and the children. Best Regards, DJC