

I've repeatedly had these phony charges appear on my AT&T phone bill. AT&T says it is not responsible and I should call the number of the company putting these charges on my AT&T bill. Sometimes they remove them and sometimes they don't.

I signed up with AT&T, and they are thus responsible to either block all such outside charges from anyone at my direction, or to not allow them to begin with.