

Simple solution: Require phone companies such as Verizon to verify all these bogus items rather than blindly passing them on to the hapless consumers.

This will put these "black box" operators where they belong..Out of Business.