

This rule does not go far enough. ALL phone companies should be REQUIRED to notify customers they have the right to opt out of any and all third-party billing. ALL phone companies should also be required to ALLOW customers that same option, and ALL phone companies should be required to STOP any and all third-party billing to any customer's bill, upon the customer's request.