

I think it would be much simpler if they just passed a bill that banned phone companies allowing fraudulent third party charges to our phone bills!