

I have been a victim of cramming. Your bill to allow customers to opt out of 3rd party services is very important. It does need to force phone companies, though, to offer the opt-out option. (AT&T was not helpful and I doubt that they would offer the opt out option.)