

I am so tired of working so hard to be taken advantage of by companies that try to STEAL my money. Not only should the law be changed, the companies should be required to return all monies that they scammed from people. If I tricked someone out of money and got caught doing it, I would have to pay restitution. So should they.

And it should be required that the companies allow consumers to opt out. Why do we have to be forced to take the good with the bad? Is this what America is all about? It's a free country, so therefore I can force you to accept something you don't want because I have something you need!?
