

I use GPS in my personal life (navigation, GPS watch, smart phone) and in my business life (I work for an engineering and surveying firm). This is vital technology that would significantly hinder our culture and our economy if it were no longer accurate or reliable. Tests have shown that LightSquared's wireless broadband services will greatly interfere with GPS. I encourage the FCC to NOT allow LightSquared to use the spectrum in or near the GPS band. Thank you.