

I am very concerned with any possible interference with the GPS system. Lightspeed should not be allowed to proceed on this waiver. I'm sure a majority of the 1700 comments agree GPS, after the shutdown of LORAN and the adoption of GPS by professional users, is critical to the daily lives of a majority of Americans and should not be subject to any extra interference.