

Please do not allow LightSquared to interfere with GPS signal reception. As a private pilot who uses GPS on every flight I can attest to it's value as a safe and efficient method of getting around in the sky. Any degradation of signal strength would seriously compromise safety in the air. LightSquared's attempt to hijack the broadband frequencies needed for GPS should be emphatically put down. Thank you for listening.