

While I agree that LightSquared has a right to pursue its business, The greater public good and safety is served by delaying the entry of LS into this frequency spectrum until ANY doubt as to interference is put to rest.