

The LightSquared proposal as it stands will devastate the High Precision GPS Users Community resulting in a tremendous public safety issue and an economical disaster for the United States and should not be given approval until all issues are completely resolved