Dear Chairman Genachowski and Attorney General Holder:

My representative in Congress, Grace Napolitano, sent me a copy of a letter that she and many other Democratic members of Congress signed and sent to you. The letter was dated June 24, 2011. It supported the merger of AT&T and T-Mobile because of their promises of improved broadband access.

The issue is anti-trust: does this merger violate existing anti-trust legislation? In my opinion, it does. I urge you to review the merger on this basis.

Whether or not broadband access may become more widely available is simply not relevant.
